

Steve Gage is in town.

Scarlet fever still claims many patients here.

Governor Kipp and wife return to Carson this morning.

C. W. Jones and wife went below last night, to be gone a week.

The assistants to help bring the mine over here went below last night.

Early risers yesterday morning report ice on the ground. Bad for the fruit.

M. Byrne, a Supervisor of Nevada County, Cal., was in town last evening.

The examinations at the public school continue daily. The term closes tomorrow.

The Knights Templar of California are planning an excursion to Lake Tahoe this summer.

Charley Fassett, the Baby Hill druggist, is here for the purpose of recruiting his health.

The Young Ladies' Band of Carson has been engaged to play in Reno on the Fourth of July.

The main track of the Central Pacific Railroad at Winnemucca is 4,332 feet above the level of the sea.

State Controller Hallock and Attorney-General Murphy were in town yesterday on State business.

Mrs. Martin Sullivan, of Truckee, had her ears pierced for rings, caught cold, and died in a few days from erysipelas.

Stockmen say the late rains have made the grass grow so fast lately that the grazing is better than it has been for years.

The regular communication of Reno Lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M., will be held on Saturday evening. Three Trustees are to be elected.

Wagon loads of Syrup of Figs are being shipped to all points of the compass. A big trade is being built up by the enterprising company.

The House of Representatives yesterday passed a bill to refund to this State the money spent in the Indian wars. Nevada gains $300,000 by this.

The Locomotive Engineers of Wadsworth have the finest library in the State, second only to the State Library itself, which contains 16,000 books.

Charles Parker, druggist, for some time in the employ of John F. Myers, has resigned his position there to accept a place in Thaxter's drug store, Carson.

Sixteen cases of Washoe county raised strawberries were shipped to Eureka by express yesterday morning. They are selling here three boxes for half a dollar.

The shooting range of the Reno Guard has been moved to the foot of Fourth street, the place formerly used being considered dangerous to pedestrians.

Meadow Lake.

The greatest difficulty in working the mines of Meadow Lake has been found in the extreme hardness of the rock, which is essentially iron ore. The gold in it is coarse, and plainly visible, but mining and reducing the ore is too expensive for profit. An iron working company of Burlington, Iowa, now propose experimenting with it, working and smelting it as they would iron ore, precipitating the gold while the iron is in a liquid state, so that it will be found in the point of a cone of the metal when cooled off.

Reno Rushing Things.

The Journal of Tuesday morning says: "Carson City and Virginia will be nearly depopulated on the Fourth—so generally will they visit Reno. Our committees are hard at work."

To this the Enterprise replies: "As Reno is liable to overflow on that day, it might be well for the Committee of Arrangements to pitch a few tents out across the bridge for the accommodation of such of our people as may happen not to arrive till late."

Many Troubles.

The poor farmer has many enemies. Between grasshoppers, bugs, blights and blizzards he is a tormented man. Furthermore, we are now told that in Texas and Kansas prairie dogs are scratching up the wheat in vast quantities. Before the advent of civilization wolves, coyotes, hares and wild cats kept the prairie dog population down to a reasonable limit, but with that check removed they are now multiplying amazingly and threaten to become such a pest as the rabbits are in Australia. No invention of nature or man seems to get the better of the grasshopper.

SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.

Commencement Exercises Yesterday Afternoon—Successful Ending of the Sixth Year.

A large number of friends were present at the Seminary yesterday afternoon to witness the graduating exercises of the Class of 1882. Miss May Ennor sang "Old Comrades" as an evening solo. The school girl of to-day will, in the years to come, have a realizing sense of the joy there is in a reunion of the friends of youth. Miss May Benham had the honor of delivering a salutatory in connection with her essay. The well chosen and kindly words of greeting to classmates, teachers, schoolmates and friends, were spoken in an earnest manner with voice clear and emphatic. In treating the after theme, "Unwritten Music," a thoughtful tribute was paid to the strains of melody that float unrecognized around the pathway of every day life. "Footprints of the Creator" was the subject of Miss Ennor's essay. In the smallest leaf, the tiniest insect, throughout Nature's domains as also in the body, soul and heart of man and in the realm of intellect, were found traces of an Almighty Power. An inspiring polka song was given by three of the young ladies, after which Miss Belle Osborne read an essay upon "Unconscious Influence."

Radiating from every human soul, accomplishing its work of either good or evil, is this unthought power of the individual character. The poet of the class, Miss Vienna Dollarhide, received an appreciative applause at the close of her original poem. "The Coming Woman" was depicted as strong physically and mentally, destitute of foibles, not blind to faults, generous and helpful, in fact "a perfect woman, nobly planned." The members of the class were pictured in a witty, amusing and yet loving manner as illustrations of the various types of the woman to be. The quartette, "A Land of Swallows," was followed by Miss Louise Sisson's essay entitled, "No Sense Like Common Sense." In direct and forcible language was shown the whims and peculiarities of unbalanced minds. The one-sided man, the enthusiast, the philanthropist and the ladies in general were all invited to enlist under the flag of common sense, and never desert the ranks. The essay by Miss May Carr—subject: "Fetters"—was a discourse upon the habits of thought, speech, etc., that rule over weak humanity. The chains woven by discontent, selfishness, laziness, ill-temper and false pride, were especially referred to. The girls were exhorted to free themselves from the bonds of any disposition that tended to lower their standard of excellence. Miss Benham sang a solo, "The Valley Lily," after which the Valedictory was read by Miss Carrie Webb. The future with its hopes and fears, its anticipated joys, and almost certain sorrows, was earnestly treated. A few loving words in memory of her who was taken from their midst, and a sad farewell to all, closed this heartfelt address. The seven young ladies who thus made their debut upon the stage of life, carry with them the faith and good wishes of all believers in the nobility of true womanhood. The fulfillment of their chosen motto, "Non Ministrari sed Ministrare," will crown their lives with the blessing of sincerest friendship and truest love.

Bishop Whitaker spoke a few words of parting counsel with an eloquence and earnestness which proved how much of hope and affection he cherished for the pupils under his charge. The certificates of graduation were presented with an assurance of their being fully deserved. Two young ladies, Miss Carr and Miss Webb, received diplomas of excellence attained in the study of music. The prize offered by Mr. Crawford, of Eureka, for the greatest progress in music during the year, was awarded to Miss Belle Osborne. Miss May Adams was spoken of very highly, as having gained in that art, almost as rapidly as the young lady mentioned.

Wedding Bells.

Last evening Rev. Geo. De la Maty united in matrimony Thomas F. Laycock and Miss Effie Loomis, at the residence of the bride's brother, Charles A. Loomis. The bridesmaids were Misses Minnie Vallancourt and Grace Williams, while the best men were Lester Loomis and Charles Little. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Neale, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brookins, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. De la Maty, Mr. and Mrs. G. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coffin, Mrs. A. J. Clark, Mrs. A. B. Williams, Mrs. Annie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. F. McKee, G. C. Holesworth, J. W. Madril. The gifts were numerous and elegant: C. J. Brookins and wife, presented vases, C. W. Jones and wife, silver casket, Rev. Mr. De la Maty, sugar spoon and knife; P. B. Comstock and wife, pallet and brush and napkin ring; Lester Loomis, spoon holder; Herbert Coffin and wife, silver spoons; Charles Little, pie knife; F. McKee and wife, cake basket; Mrs. Clark, pickle casket and lamp; George Taylor and wife, bouquet holder; C. A. Loomis and wife, knives and forks; A. O. Packard, soup ladle; A. C. Neale and wife, rocking chair; G. C. Holesworth, tea set; Minnie Vallancourt, perfume case, A. J. Loomis, table linen, etc. The happy couple were escorted to the train by a host of friends. They will spend the honeymoon in Yosemite Valley. A cartload of old shoes were showered after them.

CARSON LETTER.

Sickness and Excursions—Gardens, Hot Springs and Politics.

CARSON, June 21, 1882.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Much sickness prevails here now. A very malignant type of diphtheria has made its appearance and two or three children have died already with it. Considerable alarm is felt, and disinfections, are freely used to stay its ravages. Many children have been taken from school because of it, and extra precautions have been taken on all sides. No new cases have appeared for a few days and we are hopeful that it has been checked. An

EXCURSION TO TAHOE

Has been planned for the Fourth. This includes a trip around the Lake on the Stanford and a ball at Glenbrook. Many of our citizens will take it in. But since Reno has presented such an attractive programme for that day, and such remarkably low rates of travel, I hear of many who will be over your way to do honor to the day we celebrate. At home we will not attempt to do anything. The local press suggested that something be done in the way of a celebration, but nothing came of it. Our citizens do not feel rich enough to do the handsome and would not be satisfied with anything short of that. One of the

PENTEST SPOTS

In the State is the Capitol square. The grass is well bedded, is always kept out close and even; the trees are rich in foliage and the flowers are beginning to bloom in profusion. The nicely kept walks are a favorite promenade for our people. The State building has a very fitting surrounding. Your townsman L. L. Crockett, has taken control of the

MOT SPRINGS.

And has put them in first-class order. These Springs have always been popular for they were kept by Sheriff Swift, but I think the new management will pay a little more attention to the property. Mr. and Mrs. Crockett live at the Springs, he going to and from with his buggy, and attending to his duties as State Treasurer. I believe he is doing very well with the Springs.

POLITICS.

Considerable attention is being paid to politics. All sorts and conditions of men are being canvassed as to fitness and popularity. Two men can not talk together now without everyone else thinking they are putting up a job. I hear of but three candidates for State officers from this county, so far. They are Bicknell for re-election as Supreme Court Clerk, Gen. Edwards as for Surveyor-General and Tuffy for Treasurer. While all of them are good men it is hardly likely that Ormsby can expect to be so well represented. Her Republicanism is so well understood that she will not be likely to fare as well as other counties whose status is not so well established. I do not profess to be able to read the signs of the times, and as the candidates multiply my bewilderment increases. The Index is the most prolific suggester of candidates I ever saw, while the other papers occasionally chip in with a "dark horse." The more you hear the less you know.

The New Postal Card.

The most practical measure for public convenience in the proposed postal change, is the one proposed by Senator Ferry. It authorizes the Department to adopt the secret message card. This is nothing more than a postal card, with a flap gummed along the edges to be sealed like an ordinary envelope, which will effectually cover the message from the prying eyes of the curious. It is to weigh no more, and cost no more, than the present postal card, but will be found to be much more convenient, and will answer all the purposes of a short business letter.

Asylum Notes.

The new gas works are very satisfactory.

Dr. Dawson goes below to-night on Asylum business.

Everything will be in first-class order by the time the patients arrive.

The lawn grass is coming up nicely. They keep the grounds well watered all the time.

The sagebrush is being cleared off near the building. In a year or two the grounds will look well.

The beds are being put up and will be in place by Saturday night. The beds are the best we ever saw for the purpose.

Charley Legate is installed as chief cook and is now dishing up provender for the hungry workmen employed around the works.

Twelve Reno gentlemen have been engaged to go to Stockton and help bring the patients up. They will have a very ticklish job.

A great many visitors go to see the Asylum and express themselves as highly pleased with everything. Many go as far as to say that it would almost pay to become "cranky," in order to be allowed to live in such a nice residence.

The Nevada Strike.

Mr. Hephburn, of Wadsworth, writes as follows on the strike recently made in his mines, which is said to show not less than $250,000 worth of ore: "The property comprises six mining claims. The ores are lead, with iron gangue, carrying also some horn silver. They smelt with unusual facility. There is a superabundance of wood and water convenient and accessible. This camp has a large territory to draw upon, abounding in mines in which dry ores prevail, accompanied with quartz, which is of great advantage in reduction." P. Downie & Brothers also have an interest in the mines, they being, indeed, the original locators. P. Rositer, lately with the Richmond, of Eureka, is foreman of the mine.

Dr. Banks McKeanie in Demand.

The Salt Lake Tribune of last Sunday says: "Dr. McKeanie yesterday received a dispatch from the East offering him the Presidency of the Brazos, Mound City and Northern Railroad Co., in Texas, but his engagements here prevents him from accepting. Its terminus is at the mouth of the Brazos river, on the Gulf of Mexico, where the Government is dredging a harbor large enough to admit the largest seagoing vessels. The road is in successful operation, and offers great inducements to the Doctor, but he will remain in Zion and grow up with the Zionites. The Doctor is well known in this city."

Emigrants.

Four cars of emigrants, containing over one hundred persons passed west yesterday. Many of them were from the Western States, and all were bound for Oregon and Washington Territory.

Tom Barnett intends to give the people a benefit, no more nor less than a grand clearance sale of his immense stock of boots and shoes, furnishing goods, etc. The sale will commence on the 4th of June and continue ninety days.

Compound sage powder for constipation for sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balms, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always gives perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c. a box everywhere.
